Program

Allyson Halm of Adopt a Dog spoke to us about the organization based in Greenwich that is dedicated to finding safe and permanent homes for hundreds of dogs and cats waiting to be adopted each year. They operate a 'no kill' shelter in Armonk, NY that is open 7 days a week by appointment. They also offer a unique Homeward Bound program in which animals that may have been abused are trained to be acclimated to life in a good home before they are adopted.
