Vol. 29, No. 37

Editor: Bill Glass

Past President Bill Meehan presided over the meeting at Marley's, with 20 Rotarians and 1 visiting Rotarian in attendance...

Announcements:

1. Wilton Library's Annual Book Sale: Saturday, April 10th; many thanks to all Rotarians who helped with hot dog cooking and sales.
2. Ridgefield Breakfast Rotary: This new organization is attempting to get a charter from RI; for the time being, they are meeting as a probationary club at the Cutting Board in Ridgefield on Tuesdays at 7:15 AM.
3. Crafts Fair: May 29th; please contact Bill Glass or Richard Kent if you want to place an ad in the program booklet. Business cards are just $30.
4. Welcome Back Mark! Mark Koler shared with us some of his experiences in visiting Hong Kong recently and making up at a club there. He also presented us with a magnificent club flag.
5. Homefront: Wilton Kiwanis has invited us to join them at a project in Norwalk on May 1st.
6. Membership Workshop with PDG Phoebe Leask: President Victor is trying to get it rescheduled for sometime later this month. Stay tuned.
7. Installation Dinner: Week of June 21st at Silvermine Golf Club – more details forthcoming.

Program

Roger Szafranski, a "cancer consultant to patients and families," spoke to us about the importance of having an advocate work on your behalf to ensure your care and treatment are the best they can be.
