President Paul Burnham presided over a magnificent lunch with sixteen club members, prospective members Keith Rodgerson and Ray Alarcon, guest Amy Webb (Paul B.'s cousin), and today's speaker, Promise Mchenga, in attendance.

Announcements/Upcoming Events:

First and foremost: Congratulations to Diane and Paul Hafter on the new addition to their family.

1. April 26 – Hot dog sale at Wilton Library. Volunteers needed from approximately 10:30 am to 3 pm.
2. May 3 – HomeFront Project in Norwalk. Chris Lavin is looking for volunteers to assist with this joint Rotary/Kiwanis project. Tasks consist mostly of painting and yard work.
3. May 4 – Wilton Go Green Festival is seeking volunteers at 4pm.
4. May 8 – Rotary Golf Tournament in New Canaan. All those interested in hitting the links for a good cause should contact Paul B. as soon as possible.
5. May 12 – Rotary District Training Assembly. Please contact Paul B. for further information and details. Our club is being honored as a distinguished small club.
6. May 15 – Deadline for grant request submissions to our club from community organizations seeking funding. Please contact Frank Spencer regarding any questions/comments/concerns.
7. May 24 – Annual Craft Fair and Silent Auction. Members are strongly encouraged to seek donations for the silent auction from local merchants, help with setup, and anything else Richard Kent requests. Karen S. requests that all members purchase ad space in the fair program and promptly submit their payment to her.
8. Other – The club has received Thank You Notes from Shelter Box and The American Legion. A Host Family has been located for the exchange student visiting from Chile.

Today's Program:

Mr. Promise Mchenga, Founder of Current Impact Malawi.

Mr. Mchenga, originally from the East African country of Malawi and currently a graduate student at Umass Amherst, told us about his upbringing in his homeland and how it has impacted his life's ambitions.
