

Wilton Rotary Drummer

Wilton, Connecticut

www.wiltonrotaryclub.org

May 26, 2017

Vol. 36, No. 43.5

Editor: Paul Burnham

Approximately fourteen members of Wilton's finest service organization (by my count, Boucher, Brown, Burnham, Edwards, Freedman, Goldman, Hafter, Johnson, Khouri, Lavin, Mais, Spencer, Tai-Lauria, White) found their way to Marly's on a fine (not cold), early Friday afternoon in May (not April). (The clock will not strike thirteen in Wilton at least, so long as our group believes in the four-way test.)

Announcements – The craft fair is happening tomorrow. If you can be there at any time during the day please come. The early shift starts at 7:30 AM. The show starts at 10:00 and ends at 4:00 – I have Mais, Russo and Meehan to help set up in the morning, then Glass from 10:00 to 12:00, Hafter from 12:00 to 2:00 and Boucher from 2:00 to 4:00 – then for final cleanup at 4:00, Bill G will be back. Hope more of you than have signed up so far can show up to promote our presence.

Other announcements – don't forget the rose sale – June 16. Or the installation dinner of June 22 (Rolling Hills). You can sign up on the club website. You can buy roses on the website. You can indicate you will be helping dispense water to thirsty parade marchers on the website. You can do and get anything you want on the website (excepting Alice). Thanks to Ed Ashway for making sure of it.

Carol announced that this year's Rotary Scholarships were awarded yesterday. She was so flustered by the weather (She arrived at the meeting wearing a pair of high-fashion sunglasses and carrying an umbrella.) that she temporarily forgot the names of the recipients, but I have learned that they were Meaghan Downey, who is going to Dickinson College, and Sam Muirhead, who is going to Loyola of Maryland.

Laila hopes that we can attract some speakers – no one it seems is in the wings.

Andy announced that this year's Paul Harris fellows have been selected.

And yet again he picked the wrong card. Yet again. (He does so every time I edit the Drummer, it is now part of my template.) Loser!!

Good to see Frank.

See you Friday

Paul