Editor: David L. Dephtereos

Sixteen Rotarians gathered to hear Kathy Boyle, business and financial planning consultant, and learn of the positive results of the Carnival.

Announcements:

- Treasurer Andy Mais reported that the Carnival earned $15,274, a solid improvement over the 2015 results of $13,600. Ticket sales for the rides were up 10%, sales of the advertising banners netted approximately $5,750, and the bicycle raffle earned $170 in its first year. Congratulations to Patrick Russo, Rosa Careccia, and all who helped.
- Richard Kent held the winning ticket but drew a losing 9 from the deck. Christene assures that the winning card was somewhere in the deck and waiting for a true winner.
- The Wilton and Ridgefield American Legion Posts are sponsoring a concert by the US Army Field Band at the Clune Center on Saturday Nov. 5. See Bud concerning tickets, which are free of charge.
- The Annual Rotary District Brunch will be at 12:30 on Sunday, Nov. 6 at the Woodwinds in Branford. Also see Bud concerning tickets, which are $50.

Program: Kathy Boyle, Chapin Hill Advisors, Inc.

One of Kathy Boyle's specialties is financial planning for family-owned businesses. She discussed the elements involved in putting together a good first impression, whether for a networking meeting, a sales call, or a social occasion. A person has only one chance to make a favorable first impression, which takes place before we have a chance to make our elevator speech.

NEXT MEETING – Friday, October 21 – 12:15 at Marly's
