October 15, 2010

Vol. 30, No. 15

Editor: Bill Glass

President Luis Garcia presiding at Marley's, with 19 Rotarians in attendance.

Guests/Visitors: Ralph Slater Esq. (prospective member); Mary Ellen (didn't catch her last name), from Greenwich Rotary looking to transfer to Wilton due to a job change.

Announcements:

1. Stuff the Bus: The event was a huge success! The bus was stuffed with much needed food for the Wilton Food Pantry, and $1100 in Stop and Ship Gift Certificates were donated (including significant food and cash donations from our Club). Thanks to all who contributed.
2. Fun 'n Fines Today: To benefit the Wilton Food Pantry.
3. Hazardous Waste Day: Saturday, October 30th at Miller-Driscoll School complex. Volunteers are needed to direct traffic and greet customers. Please contact Paul Hafter.
4. Halloween Hustle October 31st: Sponsored by the Chamber and Stephanie's last day on the job. Volunteers needed to hand out water to runners. Again see Paul if you can help.
5. Editors Needed: Due to recent staff changes, I have openings for a couple of Drummer editors. The job is simple, painless and fun! If interested, please let me know. Without coverage, we may not be able to publish a Drummer after every meeting!
6. Future Programs:
 - a. October 22: Mac MacGregor, Haiti Housing
 - b. October 29: Younshee Shin, KSCPP
 - c. November 5: Wilda Hayes, Ann's Place
 - d. November 12: Dick King, Stay At Home Wilton

Today's Program

Michael Crystal, PhD, a Wilton based psychologist, author, and consultant to businesses and individuals spoke to us about his new book, "Succeeding in Your Sandbox." He discussed key elements of Conflict Resolution, Interpersonal Relationships, and Good Communications. One common thread – you must be a good listener! Mike offered his book for purchase at the discounted price of $10 per copy and had many takers!

See you Friday at Marley'sBill
