Vol. 37, No. 15

Editor: David L. Dephtereos

Thirteen Wilton Rotarians joined our speaker Flemming Heilmann for a luncheon meeting at Marly's.

Announcements:

Rotarians will be affixing the individual student names in the atlases on October 24 at Paul's Prosperous Printing and distributing them to students at Miller Driscoll School on Nov. 2. Contact Carol Johnson if you can assist at either event.

We will meet for lunch at Marly's on October 27 to discuss Club business, and there will not be an outside speaker. The next Rotary social gathering will be at the Black Cat Grille in Georgetown on November 1 from 5 to 7 pm. Wilton Rotary will be preparing two baskets of food for Thanksgiving dinner to be donated to local families through Social Services. The signup list for items will be circulated shortly. The Rotary Holiday Party will be during the week of Dec. 4, with the exact date and location to follow.

The newly-renovated Wilton American Legion will hold an open house on Veterans' Day, Nov. 11, from 1 to 4 pm. Contact Bud for details.

Paul Burnham, one of the perennial winners of the raffle drawing, pulled the King of Spades. There are 29 cards remaining, hopefully including the Ace of Spades. The pot stands at $359 for a winner.

Upcoming Events:

10/24 World Polio Day	11/1 Halloween Hustle
11/2 Atlas Distribution

Program: Author Flemming Heilmann: Odyssey Uncharted.

Mr. Heilmann discussed his recently published autobiographical memoir about his itinerant World War II childhood and education in British colonial Malaya, evacuation to Australia during the World War and ultimately to Denmark and the UK for his formal education. His book is available at all popular Internet retailers.

NEXT MEETING – Friday, October 27 – 12:15 at Marly's.
