Vol. 36, No. 23

Editor: Bill Meehan

With Christmas falling on the weekend, President Bud snuck in an extra meeting before the New Year. Fourteen merry and rosy cheeked Rotarians, joined by the equally merry Mary Russo, gathered at Marly's to exchange ho-ho-hos and gifts.

Announcements:

- You still have time to get your annual Rotary Foundation donation in before the end of the current tax year. Visit <https://www.rotary.org/give>.
- Bob Mills won the raffle only to fail to draw the joker. He should have let me do it. The pool now holds incredible bucks.

Upcoming Events:

4/28-30/17 — 2017 Rotary District Conference

6/10-14/17 — RI Convention, Atlanta

Annual Grab Bag:

Once again, the Club's annual grab bag went off without a hitch. Chocolate balls and pepper grinders changed hands. The bagel cutter was a big favorite. Bottles of cheer flew off the table. Andy grabbed the Big Larry. Enough said.

NEXT MEETING – Friday, January 6, 2017 – 12:15 at Marly's
